Archeology

IS A PHYSICAL SEARCH FOR THINGS OF THE PAST,
A STUDY OF people
THROUGH THE EXAMINATION
they left behind

The stated purposes of the Society:

- Promotion of the concepts of scientific archeological exploration and research
- Preservation and conservation of archeological material and sites
- Interpretation and publication of data relevant thereto, and
- Education of the membership and public to the aims of archeology

A Boy Scout dig at the George Ranch Historical Park.

The present Fort Bend Archeological Society (FBAS) headquarters are in the Tyree House, which is provided to the FBAS by the Fort Bend History Association.

The Tyree House provides a very comfortable location for meetings, conducting workshops, houses a library, laboratory, computer center, drafting room and tool storage areas. The Fort Bend Museum holds its archeology school programs here, as well.

The Tyree House is adjacent to the Fort Bend Museum Complex and relies upon the volunteers and full-time staff for guidance and assistance.

Regular meetings take place on the second Tuesday of the month at Gus George Academy in Richmond.
